CATHOLIC ASSOCIATION
OF LATINO LEADERS

August 12-14, 2011

EVERYONE IS INVITED!

On August 12-14, 2011, the Catholic Association of Latino Leaders will host its annual members meeting at the beautiful JW Marriott at Cherry Creek in Denver, CO. The theme of this year's meeting will focus on how our Catholic faith merges with our responsibility to be "faithful citizens."

You are invited to join the members of CALL, along with other national leaders and our distinguished speakers, for this unique event designed to address some of the most critical issues currently facing our Church and our nation. Topics include:

Our Changing Country: Population, Economic Impact, and Projections • Preserving Our Catholic Identity • Solutions That Merge Catholic Identity With Catholic Education • Faithful Citizenship: What does it really mean? • Immigration Reform: Legal, Economic, and Catholic Viewpoints • Faith, Public Policy, and Politics • The Courage to be Catholic
